General INDEX to the Two First VOLUMES.

A

Addreſs to the public, 1
Adventures of Omar, 131, 238, 290
Aikin, J. and A. L.'s, miſcellaneous pieces reviewed, 218.
Aikin, J.'s, traſlation of the life of Agricola, by Tacitus, reviewed, 661
Anderſon's diplomata Scotiae, review of a tranſlation of it, 46
Anecdotes of Scottiſh literature, 5
———of Michael Scott of Balwirie, 6
———of John Scott of Duns, 7
———of William Dempſter, ib
———of John de Fordoun, 8
———of John Blair, ib
———of John Barbour, 9
———of James I. ib
———of William Elphinſtone, 10
———of Nicolas Hepburn, ib
———of Patrick Hamilton, ib
———of Alexander Aleſſe, ib
———of Robert Wauchop, 11
———of George Wauchop, ib
———of Alexander Barclay, ib
———of Gawen Douglas, ib
———and curious facts, 68
———of John Major, 113
———of Hector Boece, 114
———of James Laing, 117
———of Robert Turner, ib
———of Henry Scrymzeor, ib
———of David M'Kenzie, 116
———of John Leſlie, ib
———of a Scots Highlander, 178
———of Laura and Petrarque, 414
———an hiſtorical one, 524
———of the Scots trade, 564
———of James VI. 644
———of Mark Alexander Boyd, 691
———of Marie de Loraine, 692
———of Archibald Douglas Earl of Angus, ib
———of Sir William Dick of Braid, 693
———of James Levingſton, 694
———of John Meldrum, ib
———of Count Leſlie, ib
———of Adam Blackwood, 695
———of Hamilton Earl of Arran, 749
———of Roger Aſcham, 750
———of Henry Welby, ib
———of Renatus Deſcartes, 751
———of Elizabeth Ducheſs of Albemarle, 752
Antiquities of Scotland, review of an introduction to them, 48
———of Stirlingſhire, 231, 348, 409, 459, 575, 617, 729
———found in Orkney, 615
Antoninus's wall, an account of it, 409
Arbuthnot, Dr, a memoir of him, 417
Archaeologia, vol. 2. a review of it, 88
Architecture, reflections on it, 286, 402
Argyle, Duke of, character of him, 470
Art of pleaſing, by Cheſterfield, 191, 225, 281, 358, 397
Athole-houſe, a country-dance, 84

B

Bacon, Sir Francis, character of him, 739
Bannockburn, account of the battle of, 729
Barron's eſſay on the plough reviewed, 155
Beattie, Dr, his hermit, 81. On Lord Hay's birth-day, ib
———a review of his minſtrel, 439
———his correſpondence with Dr Prieſtley, 636
———his hermit tranſlated into Latin, 700
Births, liſts of, 55, 111, 168, 224, 280, 335, 392, 448, 504, 560, 616, 672, 723, 786
Blacklock, Dr Thomas, his ſong, entitled abſence, in the manner of Shenſtone, 254. His the Graham, an heroic ballad, reviewed, 553
Blaſphemy, a modeſt defence of it, 185, 246, 294, 353, 505
Blind, a letter on the education of them, 673
Bolingbroke, Lord, a character of him by Cheſterfield, 473
Boſtonians. See Hiſtory, Parliament
Bothwell-bridge, notes concerning the battle of 69
Bridget Bendiſh, grand daughter of Oliver Cromwell, her character, 698.
Brooke's Juliet Grenville, a review of it, 264
Buchanan, George, memoir of him, 242

C

Cambridge, an article of literary information, 160
Camelon cauſeway, 350
Campbell's falconry, a review of it, 92
Carſtares, memoir of him, 124. His ſtate-papers reviewed, 437
Caſtlecarry, a Roman ſtation in Stirlingſhire, account of it, 231
Chapel, new Epiſcopal, at Edinburgh, account of it, 697
Chapman, George, review of his treatiſe on education, 48
Character of Tacitus, 22. Of Mary Queen of Scots, 57
———a ſingular one, 698
Characters and maxims by Cheſterfield, 524
Cheſterfield's art of pleaſing, in a ſeries of letters, 191, 225, 281, 358, 397.

——his opinions of men and books, 471
——his maxims and characters, 524
——his letters, 583
China, of its government and hiſtory, 639
Circuit-courts, trials before them, 55
Claſſical education, advantages of it, 59
Commons, circumſtances attending an inſurrection of them in the reign of Richard II. overlooked by hiſtorians, 181
Conſtitutional tract, 14
Coquette, a character, 126
Correſpondents, notes to them, 56, 112, 168, 224, 280, 336, 392, 504, 560, 616, 672, 728, 786
Crawford's Phaedon of Plato, a review of it, 141
Crichton, the admirable, a memoir of him, 464
Cumming, Thomas, a character of him, 559

D

Deaths, liſts of, 55, 111, 168, 224, 280, 335, 392, 448, 504, 560, 616, 672, 728, 786
Demodocus's letter on the education of the blind, 673
Detection of memoirs of a cavalier, 127
Downman's infancy reviewed, 607
Drummond, George, a ſketch of his character, 580
Duncan's preſervative againſt infidelity reviewed, 499
Dundas, Sir Laurence, a letter of his, deſiring his agent to bribe ſundry perſons in the Dumfermline diſtrict of boroughs 724

E

Edwin and Adela; a tale, 74
Education, advantages of a claſſical one, 59
——a cenſure of the preſent plan of it, 457
——of the blind, a letter on it, 672
Eloquence of the bar, advantages of the Scottiſh idiom in it, 522
Emigration, Pennant's obſervations on it, 502
——an eſſay on it, 512, 661, 741
Erſkine, Captain, his letter to the magiſtrates of Edinburgh, 724

F

Falconry, a treatiſe of, reviewed, 92
Fairfax, Lord, orders for the ſervants of his houſhold, after the civil wars, 510
Falkirk, the battle of, 617
Ferguſon, a review of his inſtitutes of moral philoſophy, 103
Fidelia, a portrait, 294
Fiſheries, premiums for the encouragement of them in Scotland, 178, Remarks on the herring-fiſhery, 568. Uncommonly ſucceſsful this ſeaſon, 669
Fop, a portrait, 71
Forbes, Duncan, a ſketch of his character, 182
Fox and magpie, a fable, 128

G

Gellert's traveller, imitated, 184
Gerard on genius, a review of it, 588
Gib's diſplay of the ſeceſſion-teſtimony reviewed, 477, 543
Gibſon, Biſhop, his edition of Hathornden's polemo-middinia, 756
Glaſgow, obſervations on its trade, 565
Godin, Madame, account of her misfortunes, 686
The Graham, an heroic ballad, by Dr Blacklock, reviewed, 553
Graham's dike, an account of it, 409
Grecian fire, remarks on it, 306
Greenlaw, Mr William, his character, 504
Gregory, Dr, his legacy to his daughters, reviewed, 330
Guineas, order of treaſury relative to their weight, 615
Guthrie's geographical grammar, a review of it, 215

H

Hailes's remarks on the hiſtory of Scotland, reviewed, 46
Hamilton of Bangour, his ode on the battle of Gladſmuir, 139
Harlequin, his hiſtory and character, 344
Harwood, Dr, of temperance and intemperance, reviewed, 722
Hawkeſworth, review of Banks and Solander's voyage, written by him, 28. His poems on freedom and friendſhip, 587
Hawthornden's polemo-middinia, with Gibſon's notes, 755
Helvetius, a review of his child of nature, 605
Henry, Dr, review of his ſermon, 45
——of his hiſtory of Great Britain, 199, 264
——His promotion to the morning lectureſhip by the magiſtrates of Edinburgh, contrary to the will of the founder, 334
Herring-fiſhery, remarks on it, 569. Uncommonly ſucceſsful this ſeaſon, 669.
Herrings, hiſtory of them, 571
Highlander, an anecdote, 178
Hiſtory of Scotland, remarks on it, 46
History. Reports concerning a peace between the Ruſſians and Turks, 49. The grand Ducheſs of Ruſſia's marriage and profeſſion of the Greek church, 50. Suppreſſion of tumults in Smyrna, ib. Form of government to be introduced into Poland, ib. King of Pruſſia's oppreſſions in the city of Dantzick, 51, 105. Suppreſſion of the Jeſuits in Italy, 52, 164. Bull elected Lord Mayor of London, 53. Canal between Forth and Clyde, navigation on it, partly opened, 54, 110. Emigrations increaſe, 54, 167. Advantages gained by the Ruſſians over the Turks, 105, 163, 220, 501. Riots in Sicily, 106, 165. An intended revolution in France, 107. Intelligence concerning the Jeſuits, ib. Rebellion in Morocco, 108. Coinage of guineas, ib. Parliament prorogued, ib. Lieutenant of Ireland's ſpeech to parliament, 109. Some favourable circumſtances relative Scotland, 110. An account of the cauſe between the governors of Heriot's hoſpital and the magiſtrates of Edinburgh, ib. Eaſt India affairs, 166. Monument for General Wolfe, ib. Captain Phipps's voyage to the north ſeas, 167. Magiſtrates of Edinburgh, reſolve to appeal their cauſe againſt Mr Ferguſon, ib. Houſe of peers affirm the decree, 333. Treaty between Pruſſia and Poland, 220. The parliament opened, and the King's ſpeech, 222. Addreſs of the houſe of Lords, ib. The King's anſwer, 223. Siege of Siliſtria raiſed, 274. Proceedings of parliament relative to an accuſation againſt the ſpeaker in a public news paper, 274. Letter from the ſheriffs of London to John Wilkes, and his anſwer, 278. Premiums for the encouragement of Scots fiſheries, 278. Inſurrection in Ruſſia, 233, 389. Proceedings of parliament with regard to the Boſtonians, 333. Subſtance of the Boſton bill, 389. Bill brought in for emancipating colliers and ſalters, 390. Acts paſſed, 390, 391. Act enabling Meſſrs Douglas, Heron, and Co. to redeem their annuities, 391. Proceedings of the general aſſembly of the church of Scotland, 446. Behaviour of the Boſtonians upon receipt of the port bill, 501. Debates on the literary property bill, 501, Broad cloth manufacture recommended in Scotland, 503. Behaviour of the native of Otaheite, 558. Storm at Charleſtown, 559. Peace between Ruſſia and and Turkey concluded, 612. American's ſolemn league and covenant, 613. Letter from New York, explaining the conduct of the Americans, ib. Treaſury's order relative to the weight of gold-coin, 615. Letter concerning New York, 665. Letter to Gen. Gage, ib. Election of Edinburgh magiſtrates, 722; their conduct in electing a member of parliament, 722, &c. A letter of Sir Laurence Dundas, deſiring his agent to bribe ſundry perſons in the Dunfermline diſtrict of boroughs, with remarks, 724. Reflections, political and moral, by an eminent divine of the city of Edinburgh, 727.

Hooper, a review of his rational recreations, 655

Howard's ſiege of Tamor reviewed, 207.

J

James I. ſpecimens of his familiar letters, 67, 120, 121, 755. Of his poetry, 121

Jeſuits, their ſuppreſſion in Italy, 52. Epitaph on their deſtruction, 139

Inſcription in memory of Eleanor Jenkinſon, 671

——————on Tobias Smollet, 24, 421

——————George Baillie of Jerriſwood, 84

——————Lady Griſel Baillie, 421

——————James Thomſon the poet, ib

——————Edwin, 422

——————on the foundation ſtone of the Regiſter-office, 558

——————on Mr M'Laurin, 786

K

Kames, Lord, a review of his Sketches on the Hiſtory of Man, 310, 376, 430, 494, 555

Killigrew's account of the poſſeſſion of the nuns at Loudun, 449

Kincaid, the Hon. Mrs, her character, 616

Knox, John, the reformer, a character of him, 517

L

Latimer, extract from his ſermons, 182

Laughton's hiſtory of Egypt reviewed, 500

Leland, a review of his hiſtory of Ireland, 97

Letters, familiar ones of James I. 67

Literary news, 18, 129, 180

Literature, anecdotes of Scottiſh, 5

Littleton, ode occaſioned by his death, 27

Loch's letters on the trade and manufactures of Scotland, reviewed, 611

——————his letter to the magiſtrates of Edinburgh, 723

Lorimer Dr, his ſermon on the duty of holding faith, reviewed, 219

Love and marriage, bad effects of precipitancy in them, 515

Louis XIV. character of him by Cheſterfield, 525

Luc De, an account of his diſcoveries relating to the barometer and thermometer, 255, 531

M

Macbeath, tragedy of, a critique upon it, 626
M'Kenzie, Sir George, on the advantages of the Scottish idiom in the eloquence of the bar, 522
M'Laurin, Mr, a review of his decisions in remarkable criminal cases, 649
M'Millan, John, a character of him, 334
Magistrates of Edinburgh, their proposal for a poors-rate, 54
———account of the cause between them and Mr Walter Ferguson, 110. Resolve to appeal it, 167. Decree of the court of session affirmed, 333
———complaints against them, 111
———threatened with a prosecution for appointing Dr Henry morning-lecturer, 334
———their negligence with regard to the begging poor, 392
———gain their cause concerning the imposts, 614
———confine the street-beggars, 670
———intimate their intention of applying to parliament to enable them to make a new road to Leith, 670
———history of their conduct in electing a member of parliament, 722
———their midnight-invitation, with remarks, ib
Marlborough, Duke of, character of him by Chesterfield, 524
Marriages, lists of, 55, 111, 168, 223, 280, 391, 448, 504, 560, 616, 672, 728
Mary, Queen of Scots, her character, 57
Maxims and thoughts, 72, 180, 407, 696
———by Chesterfield, 524, 527
Monboddo, Lord, a review of his origin and progress of language, vol. II. 320, 367, 423
Monro, Dr Alexander, late professor of anatomy in the university of Edinburgh, his life, 302, 337
Montrose, Marquis of, account of his condemnation and execution, 119
Murray, Lord Mansfield, a character of him by Chesterfield, 472

N

Nuns, an account of the possession of them at Loudun, 449

O

Ogilvie on composition reviewed, 484
Omar, adventures of, 131, 238, 290
Ossian's-hall, a country-dance, 140
Oswald, Dr, his correspondence with Dr Priestley, 624
Otaheite, account of the manners and government of its inhabitants, 30. An account of a native of it, 558

P

Paisley, description of its trade and manufactures 567
Parliament, proof of an early representation of the people, 14. Proceedings relative to an accusation against the speaker in Woodfall's Public Advertiser, 274. Proceedings with regard to the Bostonians, 333. Substance of the Boston-bill, 389. Bill for emancipating colliers and salters allowed to be brought in, 390. Bills passed, 390, 391. Act enabling Messrs Douglas, Heron, and Co. to redeem their annuities, 391 Debates on the literary-property bill, 501.
The Patriot, 744
Pennant's observations on the trade of Scotland, 564
Perry, his man of business reviewed, 659
Petrarque, picture of Laura, his mistress, 117
———anecdotes of Laura and Petrarque, 414, 469
Phips, Captain, account of his voyage to the north seas, 167
Pitcairn, Dr Archibald, a memoir of him, 360
———his Latin poems, 285
Pitt, Mr, his character by Chesterfield, 472
Poetry—Ode to Independence by T. Smollet, 25. Venus at Edinburgh, 26. Ode to the Muse, occasioned by Lord Littleton's death, 27. The Hermit, by Dr Beattie, 81. On Lord Hay's birth-day, by the same, ib. The Rose, an Idyllion, 82. Falconer's address to his mistress, 82. Epitaphe sur le Roi de Prusse, 82. translation of it, 83. Jean qui pleure, et qui rit, by Voltaire, ib. Abbe de Voisenon's reponse, ib. A translation of them, 137. Epitaph on the destruction of the Jesuits, 139. Ode on the battle of Gladsmuir, by Mr Hamilton of Bangour, ib. Verses by a lady, ib. Song, by Metastasio, 140. Translated, ib. The invitation, ib. A mask of shepherds at the dedication of a fountain, 196. The sun, the horse, and insects, a fable, 197. Ode for the 30th of January, ib. To a young lady singing, 198. Specimen of Tartarian music, ib. Lycidas, a poetical tale, 253. Absence, a song, in the manner of Shenstone, by Dr Blacklock, 254. The invocation, ib. Verses occasioned by the death of Dr Hawkesworth, 308. An imitation of Tasso, ib. The complaint, 389. On a country-life, ib. Palemon, a pastoral elegy, 365. To the memory of a father, ib. Ode to sleep, 366. Verses on the Duchess of Buccleugh, ib. Inscription on James Thomson the poet, 421. Inscription on Edwin, 422. A song, ib. Verses occasioned by a pamphlet, entitled, A specimen of the Scots Review, 447. The approach of ſummer, 475. A fragment, ib. An epiſtle to the Hon. C— B—, 476. Verſes by Pope, 529. An elegy to Julia, ib. A ſong, ib. On the death of Mrs D——, 530. An eligiac ballad, ib. A ſong, ib. A paſtoral ballad, in imitation of Shenſtone, 585. Stanzas written after reading ſome eligies, 587. The day of judgment, by Dean Swift, ib. On freedom and friendſhip, by Dr Hawkeſworth, ib. To Emelia, 647. Invocation at parting from Serena, ib. Epilogue on the departure of Mr Colman from Covent-garden, ib. Potter's chorus of Trojan dames, 648. La Chenille, ib. The thruſh, ib. Verſes copied from a window, 699. To health, ib. Ad ſomnum, ib Three tranſlations of it, 759. Sonnet, 700 Attempt to Latinize Dr Beattie's hermit, ib. An Arabian elegy, ib. Hawthornden's Polemo-middinia, 756

Polemo-middinia, Gibſon's edition, 756

Pope, verſes by him, never before printed, 529

Preface to vol. II. 395

Prieſtley, Dr Joſeph, his correſpondence with Dr Oſwald and Dr Beattie, 628

———the 2d vol. of his Inſtitutes reviewed, 701

———a review of his examination of Dr Reid's Inquiry, &c. 711

R

Rebuke, a well-timed one, 129

Regiſter-office, inſcription on the foundation-ſtone of it, 558

REVIEW OF NEW PUBLICATIONS—Banks and Solander's voyage to the South-ſea by Hawkeſworth, 38. Animadverſions on Adam's Latin and Engliſh grammar, 36. An attempt to ſhow that the knowledge of God has been derived from revelation, not from nature, 39. Dr Henry's ſermon, 45. Lord Hailes's remarks on the hiſtory of Scotland, 46 Tranſlation of Anderſon's Diplomata Scotiae, ib. Stewart's preſent ſtate of human nature, 47. Introduction to the hiſtory and antiquities of Scotland, tranſlated from the Latin of Mr Goodall, 48. Chapman's treatiſe on education, ib. Wight on the laws of election, 85. Archaeologia, 88. Campbell's treatiſe of modern falconry, 92. A new ſyſtem of catholic theology, 93. Leland's hiſtory of Ireland, 97. Ferguſon's inſtitutes of moral philoſophy, 103. Letter to Lord Hailes, on his remarks on the hiſtory of Scotland, ib. Conduct of the chieftans of the highlands of Scotland to their clans, ib. Informations concerning North-Carolina, addreſſed to the emigrants, 104. Crawford's Phaedon of Plato, 141. Northumberland houſhold-book, 150. Epreuves du ſentiment, par M. d'Arnaud, 155. Critical inquiry into the conſtitution of the Roman legion, ib. Eſſay on the mechanical principles of the plough, by William Baron, ib. Medical and philoſophical commentaries, by a ſociety in Edinburgh, 157. Hiſtoire philoſophique et politique des etabliſſements et du commerce dans les deux Indes, 158. Dr Henry's hiſtory of Great Britain, 199, 264. Howard's ſiege of Tamor, 207. Addreſs to the citizens of Edinburgh, relative to the management of Heriot's hoſpital, 212. Guthrie's geographical grammar, 115. Letter concerning the management of a bad harveſt, 218. Atkin's miſcellaneous pieces, ib. Dr Lorimer's ſermon on the duty of holding faith, 219. De Luc on the barometer and thermometer, 255, 531. Richardſon's poems, chiefly rural, 262. Juliet Grenville, 264. Poems by the author of the ſentimental ſailor, 271. Lord Kaimes's ſketches of the hiſtory of man, 310, 376, 430, 494, 555. Monboddo's origin and progreſs of language, 320, 367, 423. The Bermudian, 328. An heroic epiſtle, 329. A father's legacy to his daughters, by the late Dr Gregory, 330. Profeſſor Richardſon's analyſis of Shakeſpeare, 386. The benevolent ſufferer, 388. Carſtares's ſtate-papers, 437. Beattie's minſtrel, 439. Faſhionable daughter, 442. Gib's diſplay of the ſeceſſion-teſtimony, 477, 543. Ogilvie on compoſition, 484. Whitaker's hiſtory of Mancheſter, 480. Cave of Morar, 491. Duncan on infidelity, 499. Laughton's hiſtory of Egypt, 500. Memoirs of a clergyman, ib. Wharton's hiſtory of Engliſh poetry, 541. The Graham, an heroic ballad, by Dr Blacklock, 553. Gerard on genius, 588. Worthington's ſcripture-theory of the earth, 597. Helvetius's child of nature, 605. Downman's infancy, 607. Druid's monument, 609. Conſiderations on the broad-cloth manufacture, 610. Loch's letters on the trade and manufactures of Scotland, 611. Maclaurin's remarkable criminal caſes, 649. Hooper's rational recreations, 655. Perry's man of buſineſs, 659. Aikin's tranſlation of Tacitus's life of Agricola, 661. Prieſtley's inſtitutes, vol. III. 701. Poems, chiefly paſtoral, 721. Dr Harwood, of temperance and intemperance, 722. Prieſtley's examination of Dr Reid's inquiry, Dr Oſwald's appeal, and Dr Beattie's eſſay on truth, 771. Chatellur's eſſay on public happineſs, 760. Pharmacopoeia collegii regii medicorum Edinenſis, 780. Conſiderations on the preſent ſtate of the peerage of Scotland, ib. Conſiderations on the management of Heriot's hoſpital, ib.

Richardſon, profeſſor, his rural poems reviewed, 262
——a review of his analyſis of Shakeſpeare, 386
Robertſon, Dr, a character of him by Cheſterfield, 474
Roman ſtations in Stirlingſhire, 231, &c.
——cauſeways in that ſhire, 348

S

Scots patriot, 173
Scots review, verſes on a ſpecimen of it, 447
Scottiſh idiom, its advantages in the eloquence of the bar, 522
——trade, obſervations on it by Pennant, 564
Sermon againſt the oppreſſion and venality of a certain clergyman, 169
Shakeſpeare, a critical illuſtration of two obſolete paſſages in, 752
Smollet, an inſcription to his memory, 24
——his ode to independence, 25
Stewart, Charles, a review of his preſent ſtate of human nature, 47
Stirlingſhare, antiquities of it, 231, 348, 409, 459, 575, 617, 729
Swift, Dean, his day of judgment, a poem, 587

T

Tacitus, a character of him, 22
Tender wife, 184
Tract, a conſtitutional one, 14
Trade of Scotland, obſervations on it by Mr Pennant, 564
Traveller of Gellert imitated, 184
Tucker's Bermudian review'd, 328

V

Voltaire's Jean qui pleure et qui rit, 83. Reponſe de M. de Voiſenon, ib. tranſlated 137

W

Wallace, William, an account of his exploits, 618
Walpole, Horace, a remark of his in favour of Scotland, 5
Warton's hiſtory of Engliſh poetry reviewed, 541
Whitaker's hiſtory of Mancheſter reviewed, 489
Wight, a review of his treatiſe on the laws of election, 85
Wolfe, General, a monument erected for him, 166
Worceſter, Earl of, account how he lived in Ragland-caſtle before the civil wars in 1641, 408
Worthington, Dr, a review of his theory of the earth, 597

DIRECTIONS to the BINDER.

Place the frontiſpiece at the beginning of vol. I.

——— head of Mary Queen of Scots fronting page 57
——— Athole-houſe, a country-dance, —— p. 85
——— head of Principal Carſtares —— p. 113
——— Oſſian's-hall, a new reel, —— p. 141
——— head of Preſident Forbes, —— p. 183
——— head of George Buchanan, —— p. 243
——— Abſence, a new ſong ſet to muſic, —— p. 255
——— head of Dr Monro, —— p. 303
——— head of Dr Pitcairne, —— p. 361
——— head or Dr Arbuthnot, —— p. 417
——— head of the admirable Crichton, —— p. 465
——— head of John Knox, —— p. 517
——— head of George Drummond, Eſq; —— p. 581
——— plan and elevation of the new Epiſcopal chapel, —— p. 697